GREETINGS

I feature Mandarin cooking at Yang Yang and Yang Yang Too. This flavorful, light style originated in Peking, where chefs had to please the sophisticated palates of the Royal Court. They succeeded by blending piquant sauces full of ginger, garlic and scallions and combining them with chicken, beef or seafood cooked in a minimum of oil, and with fresh vegetables carefully selected for color and texture. In addition to our Mandarin specialties, we offer your favorite Sichuan, Hunan and Cantonese dishes. Also select from vegetarian offerings and creations for those on a salt or fat-free diet.

Quality and consistent excellence of our food is important to us. As the chef, I am in the kitchen making sure each dish is prepared as it should be. Together with my wife, Dorothea, we have created a relaxed atmosphere with friendly staff to give you personal attention. There are even outdoor tables for sharing the best of New York's seasons. We welcome you and hope you enjoy a healthy meal which strengthens your virtue.

Felix and Dorothea Wn

Yeah Shanghai Deluxe

百餘年來，老正興菜館以太湖地區盛產之活河鮮為原料，兼有頗具江南風味，以烹制濃淡相宜的上海菜為特色。所謂春有春筍塘鯉魚，夏有銀魚炒蛋、油爆蝦、秋有大闸蟹，冬有下巴划水，老正興之油爆蝦菜獲國家金牌獎，以“天下第一蝦”，“蘇杭菊花魚”美名馳譽中外。

★ YING'S GARDEN Move to New Locations

This modest new North Chinese restaurant in Bensonhurst deserves a more demanding and venturesome clientele.

James Chin, the waiter, was pleasantly surprised the other evening when a party asked for the best Pekinese dishes of Chef Ying Hok Pan. "We suggest Pekinese things," Mr. Chin said, "but people order the egg roll and combinations. I don't really call that Chinese food."

We tried the meat-ball soup (real authenticity would put this at the end of the meal), steamed dumplings, an interesting moo shu (shredded) pork, with crepes, a crisp "shower fried chicken," a steamed bass, and broccoli, with excellent black China tea. All were pretty good and interestingly seasoned; they would be better if enough people ordered them to speed the food-buying and encourage the chef.
